

A pre-conference workshop will be presented on Monday, June 1st from 1:00-5:00. This workshop will feature a free Myth & Misconception Training Module. Space is limited so please indicate if you will be attending.

Yes No

There will be four workshops featured on Wednesday, June 3rd. Your conference schedule will allow you to attend one. Please indicate your first and second choices with a #1 and a #2. We will try to accommodate your preferences but workshops will be booked on a first-come, first-served basis.

Workshop A:

Manager's Toolkit Training will provide a preview of recruitment and retention initiatives underway to achieve a more representative workforce.

Workshop B:

The Career Pathing Project will provide insight into SAHO's innovative Career Pathing and Recognition of Prior Learning initiatives.

Workshop C:

The Aboriginal Labour Market Portal project will be previewed. This one-stop resource will connect employers and the potential workforce in a way not previously imagined.

Workshop D:

The Aboriginal Participation and Upskilling Initiative (APUI) will showcase what is being done to increase the productivity of Saskatchewan businesses by strengthening the skill sets of Aboriginal employees.

PROVINCIAL ABORIGINAL REPRESENTATIVE WORKFORCE COUNCIL (PARWC)

is pleased to present the

“WORKFORCE & WORKPLACE: Strategies for Success” Conference

This two-day conference will provide participants with comprehensive statistical information and tools to strategically plan your future workforce. Hosted at TCU Place in Saskatoon, this forum will showcase best practices, present current labour market intelligence, and will develop linkages between labour supply and demand.
